

Welcome to Postdoc in the News, our monthly news service covering emerging postdoc issues and career links for you.

Issues in Research

Dangerously busy. A global report has found 82% of workers risk burning out - and there's no doubt too many academics are bogged in 'toxic productivity'.

Inflation risk. The danger and impact of The Overblown Science Claim.

Too good to be true? A warning to keep an eye open for signs of unethical 'paper milling' activity.

Skills & Strategies

The bigger picture. When you consider future roles, don't forget to factor in how much you have learned in academia beyond research skills and content.

Ideas to action. Four facets of getting research noticed by policy-makers and other end-users.

Research navigators. 60 Nordic and Baltic academics have pooled their best tips for research career success.

Career clues. It can take courage to probe, but identifying our weaknesses can help us focus on our strengths.

Switch and combine. The case for researchers to remodel themselves as independent decision-makers and 'ambidextrous leaders'.

Embracing mistakes. Lessons learned from the painful experience of having a paper debunked.

AI in the house. The esteemed Thesis Whisperer explains how her AI 'husband' is giving her more of her own life back.

An hour a day. The author of The Organised Academic recommends a little light reading as the best way to keep your research flame burning while teaching.

Good Different. The contrasting dimensions of tackling a research career as someone with an ADHD diagnosis.

Job-search quirks. Advice from careers specialists on who you will meet as part of an industry job hunt and how to prepare.

Curly questions. The inside track on the kinds of questions to prepare for, when interviewing for research jobs.

Salient skills. Worked examples of how experiences during graduate programmes transform into the transferrable skills employers are looking for.

Career Paths

Hitting the market. A five-part US-focused guide to seeking a job on the tenure track.

Impact and effect. A PI making a career at the intersection of research, policy and industry practice.

Bridge to pharma. A senior scientist in biopharma development talks up the value of internships, industry postdocs and personal networks.

Character match. A recent study into how specific jobs match personalities has spawned an app. to let people explore which jobs might suit their own traits.

Serious Research

Subordinate Clauses... Left-field cartoons from the ever-reliable Sidney Harris on all things Christmas.

*With warm good wishes of the Season
from all of us at PostdocTraining!*